

Transmission of the House and Emigration: The Berrio House in La Bastide Clairence, Lower Navarre

	Name	Spouse	Birth Order	Date and Place of Birth	Date and Place of Death	Date of Emigration	Profession	Notes
Generation 1	Marie de Lombart, mistress of Berrio, daughter of Bernard de Lombart, master of Berrio, substitute procureur général , and Jeanne de Colombots	Jean, younger son of Marmont Abbey (Béarn) lay abbey; Calvinist, renounced faith approx. 1685; mayor of La Bastide Clairence (1693)	1	La Bastide Clairence	1721, La Bastide Clairence	–
Generation 2	Bernard de Marmont, master of Berrio	Anne de Moirie, daughter of Bayonne merchants	1	1686, La Bastide Clairence	1739, La Bastide Clairence	–
Generation 3	Anne Antoinette de Marmont, Mistress of Berrio	Matthieu Lamerenx, master of Uhart Juson	1	1724, La Bastide Clairence	1781, La Bastide Clairence	–		Involved in legal proceedings with husband regarding sales of land belonging to the Berrio house (1763)
	Marie de Marmont	Jean Labat	2	La Bastide Clairence	>1793
	Jean-Pierre de Marmont	Marie, heiress of Alsurrun house at Saint-Martin d'Arberoue	3	La Bastide Clairence	?	<1764	Notary	Went to Saint-Domingue but returned to settle as notary at Saint-Martin-d'Arberoue
	Paul Auguste de Marmont	Dominique Etchevers, heiress of Tartarive	4	La Bastide Clairence	La Bastide Clairence, 1787	–	Master surgeon	Jurat (town official) of La Bastide Clairence
Generation 4	Jean-Pierre Lamerenx	Françoise Silly, daughter of coffee planters	1	1742, La Bastide Clairence	1810, Matanzas, Cuba	1764	Coffee planter; captain in colonial militia
	Arnaud Jean Pierre Lamerenx	Unmarried	4	1752, La Bastide Clairence	?	>1764		So-called Knight de Lamerenx; received the Berrio house in payment of his legitime (1787); died without heirs
Generation 5	François Charles Lamerenx	Madeleine Biscay, dressmaker	1	1775, Dondon (Saint-Domingue)	1854, Arette (Basses-Pyrénées)	–	Captain of general staff; tobacconist	Sold the Berrio house to Bayonne merchant Jacob Gomès (1818)